

|  |      |  |      |
|--|------|--|------|
| Turning Point: The Decision at Sekigahara                      | (8)  | Architecture  |      |
| The Revolt of Oshio Heihachiro: Rebel with a Cause             | (10) | Pit House Dwelling   | (7)  |
| Historical Character                                    |      | Living Over the Ground   | (8)  |
| To Fight a Losing Battle: Yamamoto Isoroku and the Pacific War | (3)  | Shinden Zukuri: Home of the Nobility                             | (9)  |
| History—the Lighter Side                                |      | House with a Shoin   | (10) |
| "There's Gold in Them Japanese Hills!"                         | (9)  | Kanji   |      |
| Women in History  |      | All Under One Roof   | (1)  |
| In Dedication to a Forbidden God: The Story of Hosokawa        |      | How Does the Reed Think?   | (2)  |
| Gracia   | (5)  | A Man in His Country   | (3)  |
| Something Stronger Than a Mother's Love: Lady Kasuga           | (6)  | In the Name of the People  | (4)  |
| My Stage Before Family, Love, Death—Kabuki is Born on the      |      | Let's Face It—Beauty Isn't Everything                            | (5)  |
| Banks of the Kamo  | (7)  | A Spear to Stop A Spear  | (6)  |
| When the Lady Wants Power She Ruled with a Mailed Fist         | (9)  | The Mysterious Power of a Smile                                  | (7)  |
| What Befalls the Fair—A Sengoku Tragedy                        | (10) | Mommy, Do Babies Come from Swallows?                             | (8)  |
| Culture   |      | The Dark Institution of Marriage                                 | (9)  |
| A Look at Buddhist Sculpture                                   | (1)  | A Woman and a Broom  | (10) |
| Bonsai: It Takes a Large Heart to Grow Little Trees            | (2)  | Kana  |      |
| The Japanese in Their Cups                                     |      | Katakana, Hiragana   | (8)  |
| Shaku: Probing the Mysteries of the Japanese Rite of Sake      |      | The Birth of the Japanese Alphabetical Poem                      | (9)  |
| Drinking   | (3)  | A Deck of Iroha Cards  | (10) |
| Yukaku—The Gay Quarter   | (4)  | Ladies' Corner  |      |
| The Unknown Kamakura   | (6)  | Japanese Food, Origami, Japanese Calendar                        | (1)  |
| The Beautiful Heart of Stones: Sekitei—Stone Gardens           | (7)  | Tofu—Hot for Winter, Cold for Summer, Origami                    | (2)  |
| The World of Haiku: The Smallest Literary Art                  | (8)  | Miso, Hina Matsuri—The Doll Festival                             | (3)  |
| Edo and the Concept of 'Iki': An Aesthetic of Beauty           | (9)  | Sakura, Sakura   | (4)  |
| A Short History of Buddhism in Japan-1                         | (10) | Court Color—Aoi Matsuri  | (5)  |
| Contemporary Life                                       |      | Dye in Dewdrops  | (6)  |
| The Recipe for Making Genius                                   | (1)  | Annual Romance of the Stars                                      | (7)  |
| For Future Reference—Better and Older than the Crystal Ball    | (3)  | Elegance and Eternal Youth: the Chrysanthemum                    | (8)  |
| Who Wants to Buy Vegetables from a Machine?                    | (4)  | Momiji Weaves an Autumn Brocade                                  | (9)  |
| There's More to This Trade Than Size But It Helps              | (5)  | Big Rakes and Battledores  | (10) |
| Sing 'Til I Drop   | (6)  | Kabuki  |      |
| In Service of Gods and Men: Priests to a Metropolis            | (7)  | The Actors' World  | (1)  |
| Japanese Uniformity  | (8)  | Great Names in Kabuki  | (2)  |
| Reportage   |      | Dramaturgy of Kabuki   | (3)  |
| A Wealthy Farmer in Niigata                                    | (9)  | Kabuki on Stage: Conventions 1                                   | (4)  |
| Shinise—Ye Olde Shoppes with the Taste of Edo                  | (10) | Kabuki on Stage: Conventions 2                                   | (5)  |
| Economics   |      | The Play Itself Appreciating Kabuki 1                            | (6)  |
| Japan's Trade with the West                                    | (1)  | The Play Itself Appreciating Kabuki 2                            | (7)  |
| Foreign Investment Takes a New Turn                            | (3)  | Mic—Frozen Moments on Stage                                      | (8)  |
| Japan's Economy in 1971  | (4)  | Stylization in Make-up—Kuma-dori                                 | (9)  |
| Japan's Technological Development in a New Stage               | (5)  | Heroes and Villains—The Diversification of Roles                 | (10) |
| The Japanese Economy in 15 Years                               | (6)  | Topics, Science, Sports                                   |      |
| A Japanese View of the U.S.-Japan Economic Conflict            | (7)  | The World's First T.E.M. System Camera/Nissan Car Wins in        |      |
| The Problems of Reevaluating the Yen                           | (8)  | 1000 km All Japan Race/3 Million Super-high Voltage Micro-       |      |
| A Glimpse at the Economy of South Vietnam                      | (9)  | scope  | (1)  |
| After 25 years: Facts Behind Japan's Remarkable Growth         | (10) | Technical "Olympics"/Clean Cars on Future Roads/Is this What     |      |
| Economic Life, Economic World                           |      | Youth Thinks?/No Driver, No Danger/It Walks, It Talks, It        |      |
| Overstuffed and Perplexed: What to do with all this rice?      | (2)  | Saves Time   | (2)  |
| Industrial Problems Study Group: Strategic Headquarters        | (3)  | Cars from Strange Dreams   | (3)  |
| Wanna Bet? A Nation of Gamblers                                | (4)  | Winter Olympics/Whatever Happened to Poor Richard?/              |      |
| Company Spending: Socializing Comes Before Advertising         | (5)  | They'll Sell You the Rays of the Sun/Their Imperial Majesties to |      |
| The Western Invasion of the Japanese Table                     | (6)  | Visit Europe/Pour Savoir Faire                                   | (4)  |
| Consumerism Japanese Style                                     | (7)  | Battle with Bacteria/A Blow for Modernity/An Old Blue in a       |      |
| The Dear Old Bike Makes a Comeback                             | (8)  | New Dress  | (5)  |
| Industry  |      | The Children Choose/The Bronson Smell Sells Well!/Feeding        |      |
| Japan's Growing Defense Industry                               | (2)  | Pollution to the Computer/School after School/Conservatives      |      |
| Stocks  |      | Fail in Tokyo, Osaka   | (6)  |
| Economic Activity in Autumn                                    | (1)  | Thank You for the Orchard/Beetles for Sale/A Jewish Look at      |      |
| Recent Economic Activity                                       | (2)  | Japan  | (7)  |
| Balance of International Payments in Good Shape                | (3)  | Progressions of Mice and Money/250 Pages of News in a Postage    |      |
| Bullish Trends in February                                     | (4)  | Stamp/Another Stride Toward 500 km/h                             | (8)  |
| Bullishness Continued in March                                 | (5)  | Tighten Up to Save/High Precision Corona Telescope/Pollu-        |      |
| Abundant Money Supply Pushing Up the Market                    | (6)  | tion-free Engine/Internationalized Japanese Dishes/Illuminat-    |      |
| Bright Outlook for the Japanese Stock Market                   | (7)  | ing Information  | (9)  |
| The Stock Market and World Currency                            | (8)  | To be Young Today/Popular Pachinko/A New Era for Elemental       |      |
| Moving towards a Full-fledged Financial Market                 | (9)  | Particles/Tires Are Getting Big/The Big One's Been Hooked by     |      |
| Selective Investment by International Competition              | (10) | a Machine  | (10) |